

Luther Studies

Vol. 18, 2022

C O N T E N T S

Part 1: 500th Anniversary of Luther's Exposition on the Magnificat

Waiting: A Response to Luther's Exposition on the Magnificat
Saiki EGUCHI — 7

A Brief Introduction to Luther's Magnificat
Hiroyuki TAKITA — 29

Luther and Mary Satoshi TADA — 35

Words of Social Change Born of Solidarity:
A Feminist Interpretation of the Magnificat (Luke 1:39-56)
Mayuko YASUDA — 43

Issues Concerning J.S. Bach's Magnificat, Part 1: Origins
Takumi KATO — 71

❧

Part 2: Luther and War

On Being a Good Citizen and a Good Neighbor:
Reading Luther's Whether Soldiers Too Can Be Saved
Toshihiro TAKAMURA — 85

Reading Luther's On War Against the Turks
Tadahiro TATEYAMA — 99

Theologizing War — Luther and Bonhoeffer
Saiki EGUCHI — 113

What Does the Church Believe and Teach?
Reflecting on the ELCA's The Use of the Means of Grace
(UMG) and Its Structural Understanding
Arata MIYAMOTO — 133

Luther's Understanding of the Holy Communion
and the Church Today:
Reading ELCA's The Use of the Means of Grace
Motoo Ishii — 167

Postscript — 187
Contributors — 189

Edited by Institute for Luther Studies
Japan Lutheran College / Japan Lutheran Theological Seminary